Our annual pot-luck picnic hosted by Geri and Jerry Kerby at their home on Saturday, August 27, was attended by almost all of our members. It was a wonderful time of fellowship and delicious food. Thank you to our hosts who had everything all set up and beautifully decorated for this event.

Our Hawaiian shirt/skirt party night Wednesday, August 31, was also lots of fun. We even had Spam and, of course, lots of pineapple.

Bob and I and Geri and Jerry Kerby recently toured “the wild west” for 7 days including seeing the Grand Tetons, Yellowstone Park (including “Old Faithful”), Mt. Rushmore and the Crazy Horse monument in South Dakota.

Fabulous trip and we would highly recommend seeing the USA.

SAVE THE DATE – Friday, December 2, 2011 for our annual Christmas dinner/dance at Deer Park Villa in Fairfax. We have reserved some fabulous entertainment for the evening. Details will be in the November newsletter.

See you on the dance floor

Student Class Act

Jeanice McGee

Do you know anyone who would like to learn to square dance? Our new class begins October 4th. Our current dancers can continue at the beginner level, or move to the mainstream level. I think most of them will move up. We have a few single ladies, and can always use angels.

Remember October 4th. Please come, and bring finger food.

Phase 3 Round Dance Class

Off to a Quick Quick Slow Start

Meg Wallhagen

We now have over 20 dancers coming to the Phase 3 Round Dance class that started at the beginning of the month. Three couples are new to the class. We were especially pleased to greet Charley Kennedy and Suzanne Brock from Sebastopol’s Redwood Rainbows. That’s a bit of a trek, but turns out one of them (Charley) works only a short distance away from Rod and Gun. The other two couples are Tam Twirlers’ Richard and Gaille Grissom along with Paul and Sharon Prudhomme. A special guest has been former cuer Doug Saunders.

As promised, Dan and Allison led us all immediately into the Cha Cha and by month's end we were close to dancing one of the Round Dance Cha Cha classics such as Fulsome Prison.

Cha Chas are high energy and lots of fun. A big help is Dan's point that the "cha cha cha" part of Cha Cha uses the same rhythm (quick-quick slow) as do the two-step dances we've been learning in Phase 2. So the new part is that Cha Cha uses 4/4 time, which is 4 beats to a measure (slow slow quick-quick slow) instead of two-step's 2/4 time, which is 2 beats to a measure (quick-quick slow). Confused? See Katy Christie who can explain all.

October Dances

Adobe Squares Plus Hoedown

Saturday, October 1, 8 – 10:30

Eric Henerlau with Jean Van Blarcum

This hoedown comes up real early in October and will showcase our own caller so head north and enjoy. You'll get festival level calling for a lot less money and travel. An added benefit is dancing on the new floor at Monroe Hall. Rounds with Jean Van Blarcum from 7 to 8 and then double rounds between tips, Plus with Eric from 8 to 10:30. Monroe Hall, Santa Rosa.

Martinez Swingers Oktoberfest Hoedown

Saturday, October 15, 8 – 10:30

Dick Henschel with John Flora

Kick up your heels (but minus the beer) for this Oktoberfest Plus hoedown. Rounds with John Flora from 7:30 to 8 and between tips. Plus with Dick Henschel from 8 to 10:30. Door prizes included. Dick calls for Martinez Swingers' Plus and Advanced nights as well as for the Dublin Rancheroes. Martinez Adult School, 600 F Street. Take the Alhambra exit off Route 4, north to F, then turn right.

Early November Dance

Singles and Pairs Plus Hoedown

Saturday, November 5, 8 – 10:30

Mike Wright with Bob and Maureen Ensten

Another chance to try out the new floor at Monroe Hall. Rounds with the Enstens from 7 to 8 and then double rounds between tips. Plus with Mike Wright from 8 to 10:30. Mike is a local caller folks will have danced to if they attended the Top Ten Caller dances held each year in January. Monroe Hall, 1400 West College Avenue, Santa Rosa.

Upcoming Festival

Yuba City Harvest Hoedown – All Levels

Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Oct 21–23

Dougherty, Nordbye, Robertson

Harvest Hoedown features good workshops, solo rotations, flexible packages, reasonable prices, and a snack bar. There is a beginning square dancing blast class and something rarely seen at local festivals – a separate hall for frequent Newer and Mainstream dancing. Callers are Randy Dougherty, Dan Nordbye, and Charlie Robertson. Cuers: TJ and Bruce Chadd.

Added since last month are a Thursday evening Trail's End dance with caller Charlie Brown and cuer Phil Smith plus an After Party on Saturday featuring root beer floats, dancing to 4 green/new callers, and a melodrama put on by the "Half Tag Split Square Chain Thru Promenade & Storm Door Players" (don't ask).

Flyers should be on our table or go to www.asdsc.org and click on Harvest Hoedown.

Bonnie Abramson, who coordinates Harvest Hoedown, keeps coming up with innovative ideas to broaden participation for square dancing, and her latest feature is described below. We've come a ways from the old "Let's just stick a Solo sign up on the wall somewhere and hope they all find each other" days.

Harvest Hoedown's OK Corral

Bonnie Abramson

OUR NEW "OK" CORRAL: Are you a single or solo dancer who usually stays home from weekend festivals because you fear you won't find a partner? Are you a dancer who likes to dance every tip but find your partner doesn't have quite as much energy? Do you like the challenge of dancing the position opposite your gender (girl dancing “boy” or boy dancing “girl”)? Then we have the place for you!

In following with our “Harvest Barnyard” theme, we are introducing the “OK” Corral where it is “OK” to form a square or join a square without a partner – the idea is that another single/solo/non-partnered-for-that-tip dancer will fill in the open spot next to you.

This is an area where it will be “OK” for two men or two women to couple up as long as they know the respective roles they are dancing.

This is an area where it will be “OK” to kick up your heels and have a great time and meet new friends! There will be a special area set up in both the Plus Hall (The Barn) and the Advanced Hall to encourage more of our “solo” dancers to come out and enjoy a festival and get the opportunity to dance.

We will still have our designated “solo” areas where you can sit and meet other “solos”, and we will still have “solo” ribbons available to help you find each other on the dance floor, but even if you haven’t had the opportunity to make their acquaintance yet you can do so on the floor when you join them for a tip or two.

Bill and Meg’s Puzzle Time Guess the Plus Calls

Last installment for our Guess the Plus calls feature because all have now been included (ah, but there are 65 Mainstream calls just waiting!)

Jeanice, Meg, and Bill are joined for this round by a new Guess the Calls team member, Carolyn Maloney, who dances with her husband, Tom, in our Round Dance class. They are from Adobe Squares of Petaluma. (And if you get the call for Carolyn’s clue involving the four 2’s below you are way ahead of your editors.) We also got a late entry from that classic Greek author, Anonymous, who has written more ancient manuscripts than anyone else. Answers and creators of clues for this round are on page 4.

If any non-Greek would like to join our Guess the Calls team, just send us clues for any of the Mainstream calls. We’d love to include them in future newsletters.
